

Eva Rohlman has served as the Outreach Services Director at Mid Michigan Action Agency since 2015. As the Outreach Services Director, she administers the Housing Assessment Resource Agency for 6 counties in the Michigan Balance of State Continuum of Care. She directs Rapid Rehousing, Homeless Prevention, and Emergency Shelter Motel programs funding by the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services and the Veterans Administration. She has served on the Governance Council of the Michigan Balance of State Continuum of Care since the institution of the new Governance Charter in 2018.

As the Outreach Services Director, she also leads a HUD approved Housing Counseling Agency, also with eight Outreach offices across the middle of the Lower Peninsula. The Outreach offices provide a range of services for low-income households to combat poverty. Eva has a Bachelor's of Applied Arts from Central Michigan University in Family Studies with a minor in Communication. She has also completed master's level Social Work coursework at the University of Oklahoma. Eva serves on the Board of Directors for Ten16 Recovery Network and the Michigan Network for Youth and Families. She lives in Clare with her partner and two children.
